Comedian Anthony DeVito recently wrapped filming an independent flick Apostles of Park Slope and will appear in an A&E's Biography episode commemorating the 30th anniversary of Animal House. Since you're bound to be bored in the office this post-holiday week, go to YouTube & search for "Rectalieve." Anthony appears in this funny spoof written by Andres du Bouchet. It's safe for work assuming you don't work with a flatulent A-hole.
